OR D E R

One Mr. B.Omkar made a complaint before the Hon'ble Institution of Lokayutkta and Upa Lokayutka, Hyderabad against Sri B.Yogeswara Rao, Dy. Chief Inspector of Boilers regarding an allegation of bigamy. The Institute of A.P Lokayukta and Upalokayuta requested the Government to take appropriate action.

Accordingly, the Government has directed the Director of Boilers, Hyderabad to get the case investigated into departmentally and send a detailed report.

While submitting a detailed report, the Director of Boilers, Hyderabad has stated that the allegations made against Sri B.Yogeswara Rao are substantiated during the investigation and that charges were framed and called for his explanation. Sri B. Yogeswara Rao has submitted his explanation denying the charges. Hence, the Director of Boilers, Hyderabad has requested the Government to entrust the case to Commission of Inquires since the explanation submitted was not found satisfactory by him.

After examining the entire case, Government observes as follows:-

- (i) The alleged bigamy charge is more than 33 years old in 1976. All the children conceived out of his bigamous marriage are settled. During the entire period from 1976 till 2001, nothing was known about the charge at all;
- (ii) It took the complainant around 25 years to perform his solemn duty as a citizen;
- (iii) In the instant case, the charge of bigamous marriage was never known for 25 years. The officer had retired on 31-10-07 on superannuation;
- (iv) It was advised to initiate departmental action against the Accused Officer and in the meantime, nothing could be proved;
- (v) It is found that no useful purpose would be served in conducting an enquiry of this nature against the officer. Whatever service he has rendered during his job is already over. By holding charge one way or the other is not going to make any difference whatsoever in his performance of that official duty. The right course of action should have been to enquire into it somewhere in 2003.

Accordingly, Government after careful consideration have decided that there is no need to entrust the case to the Commissioner of Inquiries at this juncture. All further action against Sri B.Yogeswara Rao,Dy.Chief Inspector of Boilers(Retd) be hereby dropped.

The Director of Boilers, Hyderabad shall take further necessary action accordingly.
